Day 1

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

Cape Town to Hermanus

Travel from Cape Town or Stellenbosch to Hermanus via a township, wine estates and scenic mountain passes.

Kayamandi Township - A vibrant township tour where you will enjoy the spirit of African hospitality.

Wine Tasting - We visit beautiful wine farms, each with its own character and specialities. Learn more about the local wines and experience the unique Cape Dutch architecture with the dramatic backdrop of the Stellenbosch mountains.

Franschhoek - The gourmet capital of South Africa celebrates its 17th century French Huguenot origins. The charming main street is dotted with quaint shops, galleries, street-cafes and restaurants offering the perfect lunch stop.

Franschhoek Mountain pass - Some of the most beautiful scenery off the beaten track.

Hermanus The world's most exciting land-based whale-watching venue (seasonal from Jun to Nov). A laid-back seaside town with excellent seafood restaurants.

Day 2

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

Hermanus to Cape Town

The brave of heart can join the optional shark cage dive, or enjoy the morning in Hermanus. Returning via Betty's Bay and the Kogelberg Biosphere back to Cape Town or Stellenbosch.

Gansbaai - Cage diving with the great white sharks. (optional with extra cost)

Betty's Bay - At Stoney Point in Betty's Bay we get close to the African penguins.

Kogelberg Biosphere - This spot is one of the best natural showrooms for the diversity of the Cape Floral Kingdom. This UNESCO World Heritage site has one of the richest areas with more plant species than many countries.

Clarence drive - This coastal road back towards Cape Town winds between the ocean and the Kogelberg mountains, passing seaside villages of wild beauty and rugged mountain scenery.
